

Goodyear Tire-HQ

Would you like to save time and increase the accuracy of your Goodyear claims and credits?

TireMaster's interface to Goodyear Tire-HQ makes it possible for you to electronically submit claims for national-account and government-support sales. When Goodyear processes your claims, you can electronically reconcile the credits you receive. Along with tracking credits, you can use the interface to automatically post G3 invoices and advertising bills to TireMaster's general ledger.

Using the interface to Tire-HQ helps to reduce rejected claims, because TireMaster will prompt your people at the counter for the proper requirements. The electronic link between TireMaster and Tire-HQ also makes it easy to manage your Goodyear product line. By simply downloading the latest files, you can update the cost, excise tax, weight, and description of Goodyear items quickly and easily.

Implementing this paperless workflow reduces the need for manual data entry, which saves time and improves the accuracy of your business records.

TireMaster and the interface to Tire-HQ help you:

- Submit national-account and government-support claims
- Reduce rejected claims
- Reconcile credits
- Post journal entries for G3 invoices and advertising charges
- Simplify Goodyear product updates
- Reduce errors
